NEELY'S PLAUSIBLE DEFENSE TO CHARGES OF EMBEZZLING

Havana, Jan. 21.—During the examination by the government of Neely, exdirector of finances for the Cuban post-office, on charges growing out of the postoffice frauds, the official asked Neely if he remembered writing to C. M. Rich, his first assistant, in Noyember, 1899, asking him to come to Havana, where there was a good opening, and where he, Neely, was making over $50 a day.

Neely said he did not remember writing that letter. He said he had $60,000 in his possession when he was arrested in New York; that this money was not part of the postal funds, but was given to him upon his arrival at New York. He denied that he was in other business. In answer to the government claims that Matanzas and Santiago postoffices showed that more money had been collected from the sale of

(Special to The Herald.)
Ogden, Jan. 21.—It was stated here today that work is to begin before the clific company was again adjourned yesterday for two weeks.

Traveling Passenger Agent Ernest.

Drake of the Rock Island has been summoned to Denyer, the left yesterday. What is the Close of the week on the construction of the Ogden-Lucin cut-off of the Ogden-Lucin cut-off of the Southern Pacific. The most recent department, with headquarters in Denyer, has been promoted and a general reorganization of the staff in this territory is necessary. It is presumably in this connection that Mr. Drake has been called to the Colorado metropolis.

The Southern Pacific auditor's office is reported to be in something of a turnoll because of the change of the system of accounts, rendered necessary by the extension of the jurisdiction of General Auditor Erastus Young of the Engine Pacific to include the other Harriman lines. Among the new accounts it is required to keep a daily statement of the earnings of each train on the road. This requires a much larger force of clerks, but salaries have been cut.

THE GREAT WHITE SALE.

Mid-Week Marks the Sale Half Over.

Undermuslins

A more enthusiastic reception to an undermuslin display there couldn't be and never have we had one more deserving of it. 'Garments of good materials, well cut, a varied originality in shapes and trimming ways scarcely comprehensible and best of all, not a penny is added in price for all their superiority. "Perfect," "Just as well and carefully made as though I watched every stitch"—these and many more as complimentary are the exclamations heard on every side. And today marks mid-week in the energetic selling, yet an unbroken stock awaits you—we prepared lavishly. Fresh, clean, sweet garments; each one selected for quality rather than low price. It is not the policy of the Walker Store to ever have a cheapish article to sell, but rather through enormous ordering bring price for goodness down to level of that usually paid for the less worthy. The smallest priced garment shown is neatly sewed and well made of best muslin permitted. Come quickly for such easy choosing.
